

Release of September and October Employment and Unemployment Data for Virginia

Friday, October 25, 2013 - 2:00pm

Due to the federal government shutdown, the release of the September and October employment and unemployment data for both Virginia and the local areas has been delayed. The Virginia Employment Commission will release both September and October statewide employment and unemployment data, as well as metropolitan area employment data, on Friday, November 22. There will not be a separate release for the September data. September and October local area unemployment data will be released on Thursday, December 5.
